ABOUT THE UNITING CHURCH IN AUSTRALIA

The Uniting Church in Australia is the third largest Christian denomination in Australia and the first church to be created in Australia.

Even though our congregations can be vastly different, each is a community in which people seek to follow Jesus, learn about God, share their faith, care for each other, serve the local community and seek to live faithfully and with real joy.

The Uniting Church came into being on 22 June, 1977 after three denominations—Congregational Union in Australia, The Methodist Church in Australasia, and The Presbyterian Church of Australia joined together.

On any Sunday more than 2,500 congregations worship at a Uniting Church. Including many congregations that worship in languages other than English. Our churches can be found deep in the heart of our cities, or in our most isolated and outback towns. Many congregations have existed for years while others are new and worship in different ways.

A BIT OF NLMUC HISTORY

North Lake Macquarie Uniting Church congregation came about as the “coming together “ of three local congregations Boolaroo Uniting Church, Cardiff Uniting Church and Warners Bay Uniting Church. We now share two worship sites one at Boolaroo and one at Warners Bay.

Boolaroo Uniting Church began as Boolaroo Methodist Church on 25 February 1900 in Main Road Boolaroo.

Cardiff Uniting Church began as Cardiff Methodist Church in 1891 at Queens Avenue Cardiff.

Warners Bay at the Willows began as Warners Bay Methodist Church in 1952, at Howard Street in Warners Bay.

The Warners Bay and Cardiff congregations combined at Howard Street on 11 November 2001 and in 2002 became known as Lakeside Uniting Church Warners Bay.

On 26 September 2004 this congregation moved to the Willows in Hillsborough Road, Warners Bay and became Warners Bay Uniting Church at the Willows.

Extensions were made to the existing premises, which were officially opened on Friday, 26 November 2010 by Rev Alistair McRae, President of the Assembly of the Uniting Church in Australia.

VISION OF NLMUC

The vision of N.L.M.U.C. is to be a community that follows the commandment of Jesus to love one another as he loves us.

To achieve this vision:

We will continue to share the story of Jesus with others recognising that the church exists in a challenging and different world from that of the past.

We will endeavour to continue to follow the example of Jesus and show:

- Loving kindness
- Genuine welcome
- Sincere acceptance
- Providing for needs
- Understanding and care
- Willingness to listen and support

We will continue to build contacts and positive relationships between the church and the community through the many existing activities that occur within the life of the congregation and maintain a willingness to take up other opportunities as they arise .

We will maintain a welcoming safe environment for all within church and our activities.
